AMERICAN OIL WORKERS HELD BY MEX. REBELS

Property Is Also Captured and Guarded by Bandits Under Gorozabe.

QUICK RANSOM ASKED

United States Insists On Prompt Action by the Mex. Government.

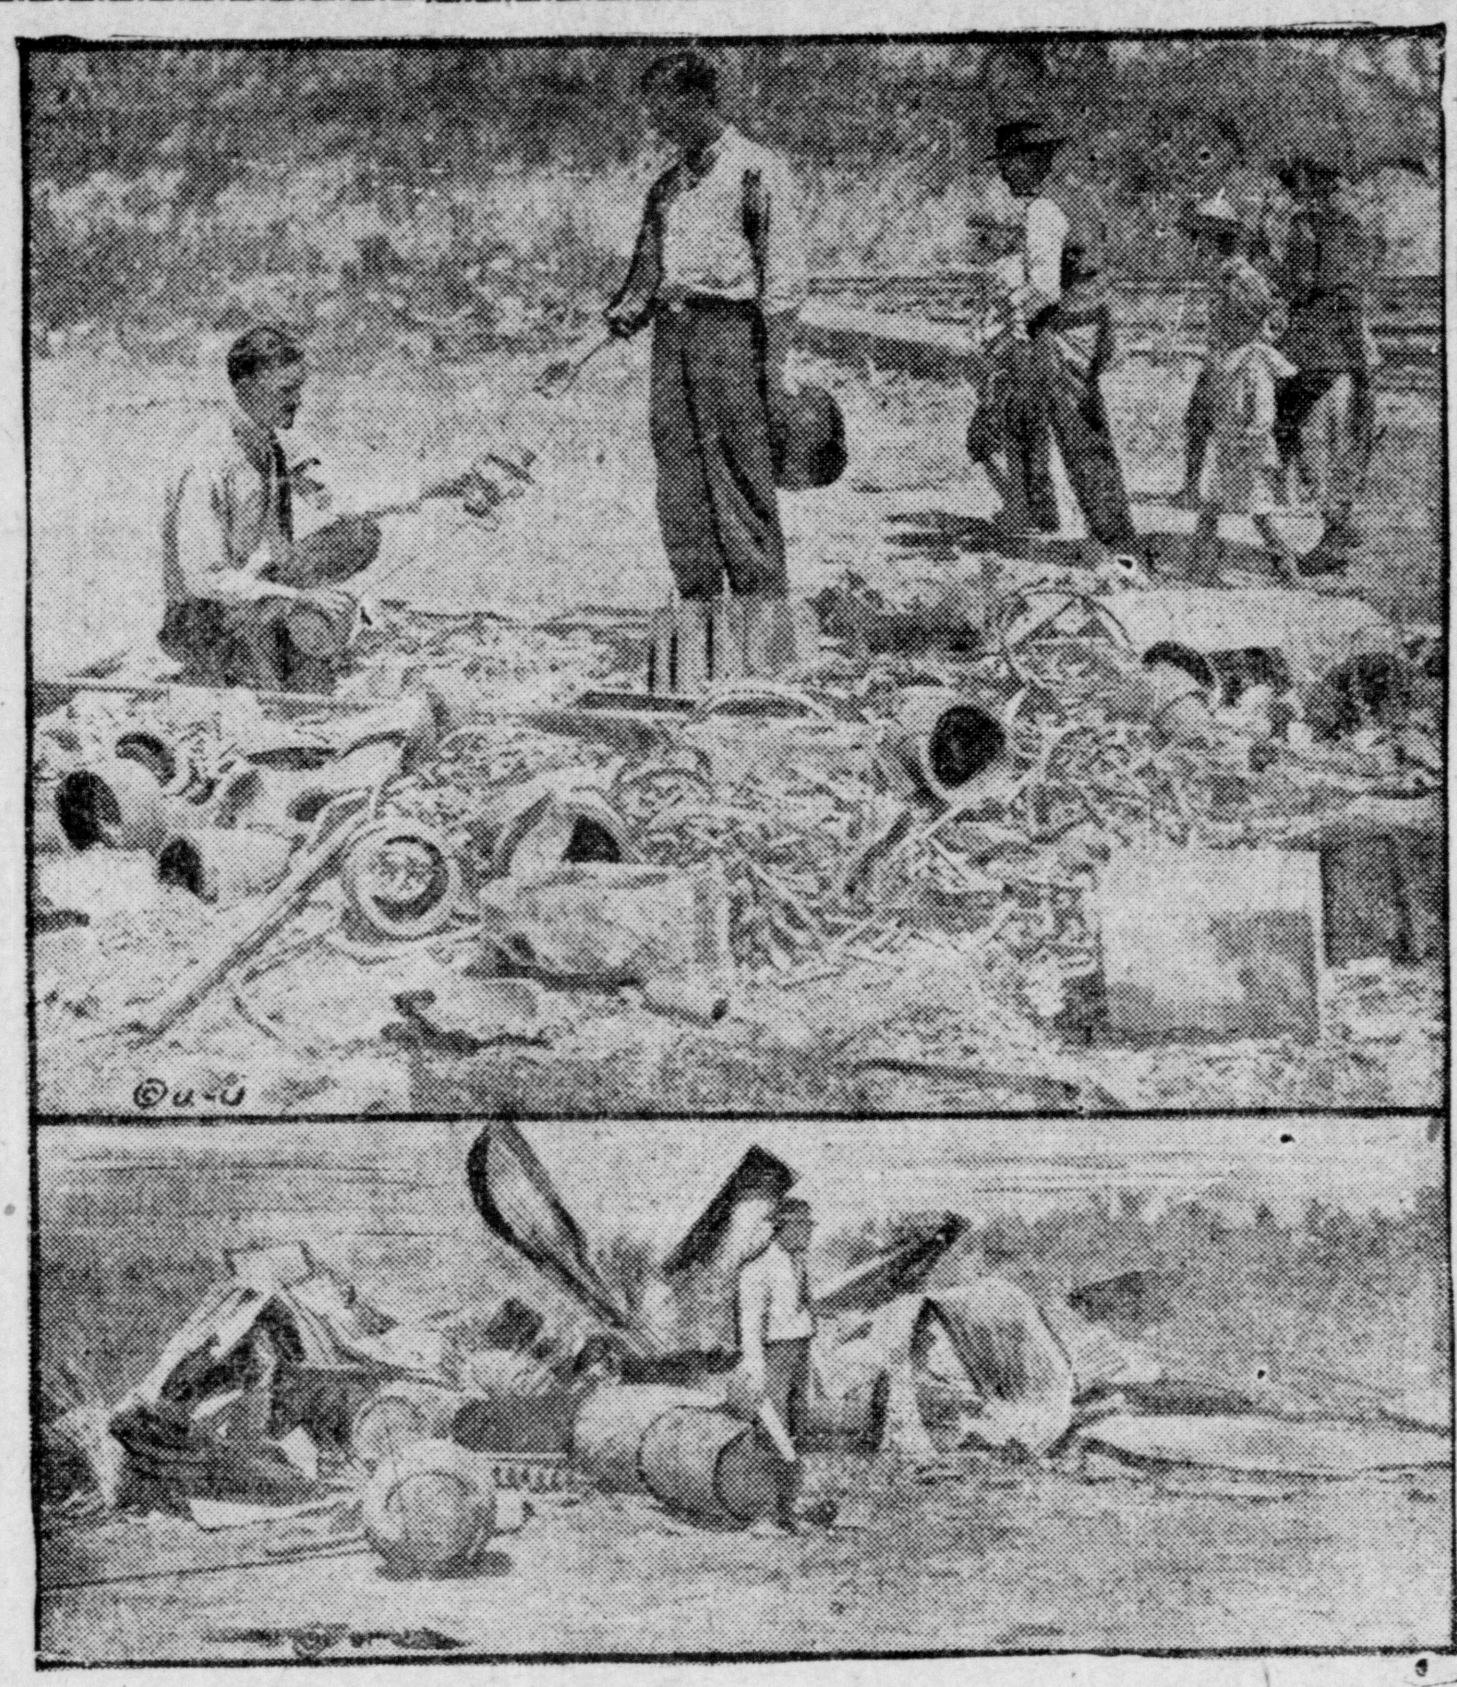

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Forty American employees of the Cortez Oil company near Tampico and destructible property valued at one-fourth of a million dollars are being held by bandits until ransom of 15,000 pesos are paid, according to a message received at the state department today from the American consul at Tampico.
The dispatch was dated and said that rebel General Gorozabe "has seized the company property and was holding it with 240 well armed men." Prompt instructions were sent by the state department to the Mexican authorities to take immediate action for protection of American lives and property.
The consul reported that Gorozabe had demanded payment within 48 hours from yesterday morning when his forces seized the property. The message said also that there were no Mexican federal troops in the vicinity.
The consul's message contained few details. It said in substance that the Cortez Oil company's Aguada camp was in the hands of the rebel General Gorozabe, with 240 well armed men; that Gorozabe was demanding payment of 15,000 pesos within 48 hours from yesterday morning, and that he was holding a quarter of a million dollars worth of destructible property and the lives of 40 American citizens as security.
The message added that there were no Mexican forces in the vicinity and that the company had asked for protection for its American employees and property. As the message was dated yesterday the time for payment of the 15,000 pesos fixed by the rebel leader was due to expire sometime today.
The state department sent the following message to the embassy at Mexico City, similar instructions going to the consul at Tampico at the same time:
"I urge the appropriate authorities to adopt vigorous means to establish adequate protection for the lives and property of American citizens reported held by the rebel General Gorozabe and to punish the perpetrators of this outrage."
Meanwhile the department was still waiting word from Mexico as to the action taken by the Mexican government to obtain the release of A. Bruce Bielaski, captured by the bandits, and held for ransom not far from Mexico City near Guervavaca. The embassy has communicated no additional details of Mr. Bielaski's capture since it received the department's instructions to press Mexican authorities for prompt action in the case.

College and Clerks Will Play in League Ball Game Tuesday
Today's city league baseball game is scheduled between the College and Clerks. College men have not won a game this year and the Clerks are threatening to take second place from the Legion.
Game will be called at 5:30 and will go for seven innings. Both teams have played several out of town games since last appearing on the field and promise to play good ball today, as much needed practice has been obtained.
Dopsters are predicting that Coach Thompson's squad will be able to mark up their first victory this afternoon. His men are beginning to hit consistently. Last Thursday's game between the Legion and College has been indefinitely postponed and next Thursday's game between the Clerks and Legion will be postponed.
This later game is attracting attention as it will be a "blood game" each team expecting to get revenge. Those who hold athletic association tickets will be admitted free to all games and are urged to attend. City league games afford considerable amusement, according to fans.

TWENTY-SIX KILLED IN GERMAN R. R. ACCIDENT

(By the Associated Press)
BERLIN, June 27.—Twenty-six persons were killed and numbers of others injured, 30 seriously in a railroad accident just outside Berlin today.
Philadelphia has 263 women physicians and nine women preachers.

Work of Blood-drunk Mob at Herrin, Ill

Upper photo shows remains of supply house which was dynamited and burned. Lower photo shows remains of oil house.

These close-up photos from the scene of the massacre of workers at the mine of the Southern Illinois Coal Company at Herrin, Ill., show how dynamite and fire were used to spread destruction while the rioters and workmen battled with guns. Members of the mob carried oil from the mine oil house to fire other buildings and then dynamited the oil house. The supply house was also blown up and then set on fire. It was near the oil house that one or two members of the mob were killed by mine workmen firing from box cars and the blacksmith shop nearby.

STRIKE VOTE IS BEING CANVASSED

Majority of Maintenance of Way Men Favor Walk Out If Others Go.

(By the Associated Press)
DETROIT, June 27.—Tabulation of the strike vote taken by the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Railroad Shop Laborers, following a wage cut, ordered effective July 1, by the United States Railroad Labor Board, continued at the headquarters of the organization here today with officials of the union predicting that the final vote would show a large majority favoring a walkout, provided other union workers, whose wages also were cut, joined in.
The count was started yesterday and approximately 40,000 were checked. Today's tabulations are expected to bring the total to about 100,000. The first count showed a heavy majority for a strike, conditioned upon the support of other unions, it was stated.
Indications were, it was said, that not more than 400,000 votes, would be cast, this including that of non-union members of the maintenance of way crafts, who are also participating.
The returns are being forwarded to C. P. Brabeck, grand president of the union, who is in Chicago conferring with other organization chiefs, concerning the possibility of joint strike action by all workers whose wages were cut.
It has been emphasized that the maintenance of way men will not go out alone.
FUNDING OF MRS. SMALL IS SET FOR WEDNESDAY
WANKAKEE, Ill., June 27.—Arrangements for the funeral Wednesday of Mrs. Ida Moore Small, wife of Governor Len Small, were completed today. Services will be held at the residence at 3 o'clock and burial will be made in Mt. Grove cemetery.
A special train from Springfield will carry funeral attendants from the state capital, Adjutant General Carlos E. Black announced. Wankakee merchants plan to close their stores and shops during the hours of the funeral.
Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, and Lieut. Governor Fred E. Sterling issued proclamations requesting the people of the city and state to bare their heads and pause for two minutes at 3 o'clock (standard time) in respect to the memory of Illinois' "first lady."

June Is a Busy Month for Cupid In Pontotoc County

Only three more days to go! June brides this month number more than that for any previous June month. Dan Cupid has been working overtime this week to establish a new record for June brides and he is not expecting to overlook any prospective victims.
One of the greatest proofs of his victory this month is that marriage licenses issued for June out number those of the divorce bug by about five to one. In fact he has wounded 29 couples in the past 26 days with his "love arrows" and is still getting results this week. It is generally expected that young Cupid will get his annual summer vacation after June, and those who are interested should take advantage of his willingness to work overtime now, it is suggested.
Court clerk deputies stated today that during the past week-end eight marriage licenses had been issued. Two of these were awarded yesterday, one for Carney Walton, 23, Ada and Bessie Bratcher, 22, of Byars, and the other for A. L. Cochran, 30, of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Frankie Mason, 24, Tishomingo.

2 COAL MINERS SHOT IN OHIO

Auto Load of Men Fired On Without Warning; Assassants Escape.

BRIDGEPORT, O., June 27.—One mine was killed and another wounded this morning when they were fired upon from a hill while en route to work at the strip mine of the Catherine Coal Mining company at Uniontown, near here according to information reaching here. The victims were in an automobile when the shooting began.
The shooting occurred near Lafayette, Belmont county. There were six miners in the automobile, but four escaped without injury. According to reports to the authorities here the firing began without warning and lasted only a few moments. The assassants escaped.
Three strip mines of the Catherine company in this region have been open since the strike was called April 1. There have been several minor disorders in that region within the past month.

WILSON GIVEN BIG OVATION

Speech at Oklahoma City Is Greeted With Expressions of Strong Approval.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 27.—(Special)—A thunderous ovation lasting more than a minute from an audience of 2,000 greeted R. H. Wilson, state superintendent, as he appeared last night before a home audience for the first time in his gubernatorial campaign. Delegations were present from Chickasha, Edmond, Harrah and other places. When Mr. Wilson arrived at the Palace theatre for his address a band struck up Dixie and pandemonium reigned for several minutes. Confederate veterans seated in the front of the house sprang to their feet and danced jubilantly. The demonstration was renewed when Wilson was introduced as a public official who in spite of investigations has emerged from twelve years of service without the smell of fire on his garments.
Without denouncing his opponents in the primary the state superintendent declared himself a champion of party rather than private interests. He called upon his audience to abandon selfish views and espouse the cause of one hundred percent Americanism as lived by Thomas Jefferson and Woodrow Wilson. At the mention of the war president's name another uproar of applause rocked the building.
Mr. Wilson reviewed the rapid strides that have been made in the state's education growth in the last ten years, reminding his audience that during the period the number of high school graduates has grown from 200 to 6,500 yearly and that the state university's enrolment has jumped from 500 to 3,000. Fifty-one million dollars is now invested in public education in Oklahoma, he said, and the average school term has been increased more than 25 percent. Strict law enforcement, improvement of banking service, revision of the state text book law, curtailment of pardons and paroles, relief of the supreme court and ample hospitalization for Oklahoma's 1,100 incapacitated war veterans were other measures recommended.

HERRIN BITTER OVER NOTORIETY OF MINERS RIOT

Community Not Yet Settled Back To Normal Condition, Reported.

RESENT CRITICISM

Wounded Miners Assured of Safety While Being Taken from Scene.

(By the Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 27.—Assurances that safe conduct out of the county of Williamson will be given any wounded strike breakers or guards in Herrin hospitals, was conveyed to Adjutant General C. E. Black by Senator William J. Sneed of Herrin, upon his arrival here this morning to attend the constitutional convention.
Nerves on Edge.
HERRIN, Ill., June 27.—With the problem of getting wounded non-union miners safe out of the coal country as its principal concern, this community entered upon the fifth day following the massacre.
It would be stretching the truth to say the county has returned to normal. Its nerves are still on edge. Men gather on the streets in little groups and talk in lowered voices. Sullen glances are bestowed on out-of-town newspaper men by idlers and by many of the foreign born.
Discussions of the "injustice" of the newspapers is the principal topic of conversation. Herrin is aggrieved, and quite sincere about it.
"Men get killed up in Chicago and nobody thinks anything about it," complained a young man on the station platform. "They won't ever quit talking about Herrin though."
Marion, just about as far from the wrecked Lester mine as Herrin, plumes itself virtuously and advises with Herrin.
"I'll take you twenty-five years to live this down," residents say to men of Herrin.
And Herrin men are angry. Just as many Marion men there were Herrin men were in that mob, they declare.
"Why don't you tell 'em about Johnston City and Christopher and Ziegler?" merchants ask. "They're worse than we are. Fact is, there probably were only about twenty men from Herrin in that mob. We cared for the wounded and we get the blame."
Investigations Under Way
A number of special investigations have been conducted by representatives of outside authorities. General Foreman, head of the special military board, made his report to Governor Len Small. Two members of the staff attached to the attorney general's office, of the state came questioned and went back to Springfield. A report to the federal state department of justice is understood to have been prepared and two investigators from the department of labor got some facts for Secretary Davis.
One of the sixteen unidentified dead buried in Pottersfield last Sunday was claimed today.
Mrs. Mabel Jacobs, of York, Pa., identified the undertaker's description of Number 16 as that of her son, Lawrence Jacobs, a steam shovel operator.
The body was disinterred and will be taken to York for burial.
More than two dozen barrels of cucumbers have already been received by the Ada Pickle Factory and are now in the first process of pickling, it is reported.

Free Rides For Kiddies To Play Carnival Thursday

Roy L. Givens, in charge of the transportation of children to and from the play carnival to be given by Miss Anna Weaver Jones, under the auspices of the Lions club, on the college campus Thursday evening, announced this morning the concentration points.
All those children who do not have ways of going to the college are asked to assemble at the Irving, Glenwood, Washington school houses or the Christian church. They should be at these places not later than 7:15 and it might be better to be there by 7 o'clock. All those children east of the Katy railroad are asked to walk or make their own arrangements for transportation. Play will start about 7:30 and continue for about one hour. Ice cream will be served to the kiddies free.
Every child in Ada between 6 and 16 years of age is urged to be present. The Lions want to make this one of the days in the lives of the children to be remembered.
It is believed that several thousand people will be on the campus Thursday evening. At least one thousand children are expected to take part in the play carnival, and easily that many adults and possibly more are expected to watch the play.

COMMISSIONERS ACCEPT PLANS

Bids for Memorial Convention Hall Will Be Called For in a Few Days.

The city commissioners and committee appointed to confer with them on the plans for the memorial convention hall this afternoon tentatively agreed to accept the plans submitted by Albert Ross of Ada and Jewell Hicks of Oklahoma City. Before the plans are finally considered the architects will be asked to revise them slightly and if this is done the completed plans will probably be finally accepted and bids for the building called for.
The drawing accepted today gives the building a very imposing front, with three double front door entrances with windows and walls in artistic models. Four exits are provided on each side of the building, which will be 100 by 190 feet, it was said.
One of the features of the auditorium, which will seat 3,000 people, is the corridor along each side of the building, permitting people to enter any row of seats without disturbing the house. This also eliminates the necessity of having aisles in the building.
On the third floor the balcony and American Legion home will be located. Double stairways lead to all floors, two in each end of the building. On the second floor will be found various other offices for the Red Cross, civic clubs and Chamber of Commerce. A stage of large dimensions will be placed in the rear of the building.
Steam heat will be provided. Shower baths, a large basement floor for the national guard, athletic rooms and a basketball court will be located in the basement. An office and club room for the boy scouts will also be located on the ground floor.
Mr. Ross will assist the commissioners and contractors in making the readjustments and carrying out the architects' idea. Six other plans were submitted, but they were either too elaborate or of a design not suited to the city, according to commissioners.
Charley Deavers, city finance commissioner, said this afternoon that any citizen who wished to see the plans could do so by calling at his office. It is expected that the purchase of the site for the building will not be completed before the middle of July.

One Killed, Eleven Wounded in Riot On Hamburg Streets

Berlin, June 27.—One man is reported to have been killed and 10 others wounded in disturbances which followed a big demonstration in Hamburg last night over the assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau.
While the crowd was dispersing they found fully armed policemen standing at strategic points, and understood to be under orders to shoot anyone who loitered. The disturbance followed.

EVERYTHING SET FOR CELEBRATION OF JULY 3 AND 4

Free Barbecue and Coffee Provided for Crowd of 15,000 People.

WELCOME FOR ALL

Plenty of Amusement Will Be Provided for All Visitors Here.

"It's all set," in the language of Bill Coffman, for the big picnic and celebration at Glenwood Park on next Monday and Tuesday, July 3 and 4. Monday is to be Boy Scouts Day and Tuesday is to be the main day of the celebration.
Enough barbecue, bread, pickles, and coffee to feed 15,000 people is to be provided free of charge, by the business men of the city, under the auspices of the Retail Merchants association. The program of events other than the barbecue is under the direction of the Ada Athletic association.
The program Tuesday will consist of speaking, ball weevil lectures and demonstrations, free cats, ball game, band concerts, dancing, and in the evening a big 30-round boxing card.
Those who are providing the barbecue insist this is not only for the visitors who will come to the city, but it is for the city people as well. It is their desire that every man, woman, child and "purr" be there to enjoy the occasion. Come to think of it, though, the "purr" was not mentioned, but it is taken for granted that he will be welcomed.
At least 15,000 people are expected to fill the beautiful little park on that day, get acquainted, forget the troubles and worries of business and the hot July sun and enjoy an old fashioned cat together.
The king of all barbecuers, Bill Coffman, will prepare the score of beebes. Joe Cole is master of the serving ceremonies. Others no less artists in their lines will be on the job.

ALL ABOARD FOR ALLEN FRIDAY

Many Citizens of Ada To Take Part in Allen's Celebration.

Next Friday will be Ada day in Allen, and hundreds of Ada citizens are preparing to go over to spend the day. The Ada baseball club will clash with the Allen nine, both Thursday and Friday, and the Ada High school band will furnish music. Hon. Tom D. McKeown will speak on Thursday. The Ada people wanted to go over on Thursday, but the play carnival coming on Thursday will prevent going until Friday.
A committee from the Retail Merchants association, which met last evening, is today canvassing the city to learn who will make the trip. This committee consists of Sam McClure, Fred Gay, L. S. Chilcutt, Ed Gwin, Ralph Waner and W. M. Pegg. If the committee fails to see any one who can't go, the person should call Sam McClure at M. C. Taylor's clothing store, or Ralph Waner at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. It is pointed out that the ladies are especially invited to go along.
Citizens of Ada point out that for several reasons a large crowd should go over Friday. In the first place, Ada and Allen are close together and have much in common. In the second place, Allen had planned a celebration for the Fourth of July, but gracefully gave way for Ada to have this date.
It is reported that Allen is to have one of the greatest aggregations of ball players ever assembled in the Pontotoc county oil metropolis and expects to show the Ada all-state champions a thing or two with the horseshoe covered sphere.
CARTER CAMPAIGNING IN PITTSBURGH COUNTY
McALESTER, June 27.—Congressman C. D. Carter commences a four day campaign in Pittsburgh county Wednesday, speaking at every town and winding up with a meeting Saturday evening in this city. R. H. Wilson, candidate for governor is billed here for Saturday. Interest centers also in the visit and speech of Governor Robertson scheduled for Wednesday night.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY
NEED OF DAILY PRAYER:—Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.—Psalm 19:13,14.

MORE PLAY.

There is comfort in the growing interest here in play. The golf club is going to have a great influence upon the grown-ups of the city. It is going to make them feel better and be better: do better business and render greater service.

The Lions Clubs in arranging a carnival of play for the kiddies for Thursday evening are doing a really serviceable thing by the youngsters. There is no better incentive to good health no better medicines than a romp in the open, more particularly here in the Southwest where the aid is always fresh and pure.

Away back yonder more than a hundred years ago Benjamin Franklin said, "Public business comes to suffer by private infirmities. Counsels of a noble country grow bold or timorous according to the fits of his good or ill health that manages them."

John Dryden wrote interestingly when he said, "By chase our long-lived fathers earned their food; toil strung the nerves and purified the blood; but we, their sons, a pampered race of men, are dwindled down to three-score years and ten."

Health is essential to happiness. It is essential to service. Without it a person may accomplish something worth while, but if he can do something worth while in health, how much more can he do if he feels well?

Then, let's play. We hope every father and mother will co-operate with Lions Club and let the children learn more about games and how to play.

WE HAVE 'EM HERE, TOO.

The following story from the Pittsburg County Guardian has its counterpart in every community and explains the real foundation of many a tale of woe and hard luck. Says the Guardian:

"Naw, I ain't goin' to chop no cotton" was the casual remark of a young curb decorator who looked like he needed a job. He had evidently just been informed that if he wanted to work he could get a job chopping cotton. No, he would prefer to hang around on the streets, do nothing until he gets in the last stages of threadbare pockets and then go out and do something that would land him in jail. We have chopped cotton and can do it again if necessary. Certainly, if we were out of a job and this was our logical way to get a little cash ahead, we'd prefer to take that way out to sponging on somebody else or living according to the law of swipe. This and a lot more communities have too many feathered edges of mortality of this trifling brand. A policeman ought to arrest such a brat off hand and put him in the lock-up until he could make up his mind that he could afford to do some honest work if this was the way to pay his board bill. Great hulking gobs of lazybones, willing to do anything but sweat from genuine work, are more useless than worn-out cab horses, and a dog-goned sight more disreputable. They ought to be arrested and thrashed.

ADEVERTISING AN INVESTMENT.

Senator Hitchcock gave the United States senate a lecture on the business methods that are controlling in the placing of newspaper advertising that bears repeating. Unlike the defamers of the press in the Senate, Mr. Hitchcock has a knowledge of the subject of the matter that was under discussion as the owner of the Omaha World-Herald.

"If there is one thing fairly established in the newspaper world today," said Hitchcock, "it is that advertising is placed upon the strictest business principles, and there is not an advertiser of importance who does not buy his publicity at the cheapest price he can.

"He does not spend it if he can avoid it. Of the millions of dollars invested every year in the newspapers of New York City, for instance, practically every dollar is put into the newspaper advertising upon the most cold-blooded business principle. There is not an advertiser who goes into a paper by reason of favor. I doubt whether one-hundredth part of 1 per cent of advertising in New York is a matter of favor.

"Merchants buy advertising space as they buy goods, trying to get the greatest publicity for the least amount of money. Any paper in New York, probably every paper there, rejects thousands of dollars' worth of advertising a year."

"And they buy that space because the merchants must have the publicity, not that they favor the paper. This talk about advertising being placed by favor is not only an unjustified charge against the newspapers of New York and any other city but it is an idiotic charge."

We do not think that the business methods that are all controlling in the placing of newspaper advertising were ever better stated. It is time that we rid the minds of those who have no real knowledge of the subject that advertisers buy advertising for any reason except that it is a good investment that pays well.—Editor and Publisher.

Campaign Fodder

(Oklahoma Times)

"Three-way splits" have played havoc with the Democratic party in Oklahoma.

The Ada Evening News, a Democratic newspaper, is also wondering what the party division which has been brought on by the primary election John Fields as Governor. Will the two defeated factions of the party rally to the support of the ticket, and will the "poison" which has been spread in the primary campaign be used to good advantage? These are questions that are bothering the Ada News.

Commenting upon an editorial in the Shawnee News in which it was pointed out that John Fields has a tremendous advantage over his Democratic opponent by not being compelled to make a primary campaign, the Ada News says:

"That is some advantage, too, with no opponents to put out poison which the Democrats may use after the primary and with the Democratic candidates putting out a lot for one another that Fields can pick up and use after the primary. It was this very thing that came near electing Fields eight years ago and if the Democratic candidates don't learn to stop this practice the party is in for a good drubbing one of these days. It is certainly not a pleasant situation to hear Republican candidates quoting campaign stuff that the defeated Democrats pulled on the winner during the primary."

Well said, brother! And don't forget that it's all in the record. Republicans will not be the only ones to use it, either, judging from what we hear from certain of the Democratic brethren every day.

Ohio State Journal: An argument urged for ship subsidy is that it provides the only way in which the country can avoid great loss on ships which it took over in the course of the war. It is extremely probable that, instead of avoiding the loss, this policy in the end would multiply it many times. The history of special governmental favors is that they continue much longer than it was thought they would. Great interest which perhaps really needed tariff protection once, if they were to survive, still demand it as their right, and get it, though they do not need it at all. Ship subsidy, once granted, would be regarded by the beneficiaries as a permanent policy. It almost certainly would cost the taxpayers billions before they got rid of it, if they ever did. And all the time it would be encouraging and fostering the bad principle of government interference in private business. It is generally the best policy when one has a bad investment on one's hands to sell it for what it will bring, take the loss all at once and forget about it. Sending good money after bad is always foolish.

Remember the C. S. A.

(Muskogee Phoenix)

For three or four years now we have heard on an ascending scale whining complaints, not only from the impoverished people of Europe, but from all the statesmen, economists and other wiseacres. All say that there is no possible way of escape for the future but by a world-wide system of international financial help extended to the weak by the strong. There must be the remission of international indebtedness, and immense international loans in order to set prosperity going. All this is asserted in the name of the "economic rehabilitation of Europe"; until we could wish that the phrase were forever barred from tongues off which it runs so glibly.

To those who may really believe that there is something in this gospel of the tremendous need of helping those who will not help themselves, we commend the turning of a page of history now too well forgotten. In the whole of Europe, in all the world, there is no instance of helplessness so unconditional, need so great, of economic destruction so complete as could be found in the Southern states of this union at the close of the Civil war. They had not only lost everything, but they had no foundations on which to build.

Everything that the South had to give was given to the Confederate States of America. Their men had mostly died in action. Their properties were absolutely destroyed. All the wealth represented by their currency became in a day only so much waste paper. Their homes were in ruins, their fields lay in waste, their labor supply had disappeared. They had no factories and no markets and not a dollar of credit. For a long time they did not even have the control of their own affairs and were fleeced unmercifully by the adventurer.

Did they whine? Did they appeal to the world? Did they maudlin about "economic reconstruction," or about the world with wooden bowls in their mouths like so many trained begging dogs? Not a bit of it. Proudly they reconstructed their own affairs; and there is no more prosperous portion of our country today. Europe can go and do likewise.

In 1914 there were 1,355 establishments in the United States engaged in the manufacture of shoes.

Cold water, according to high authority, is a valuable stimulant.

Colorful Stripes In Sweaters

The possibilities in color and design that present themselves in the popular sweater seem to have lingered until the present season, when suddenly they appeared to be exploited in a host of attractive models. From the slightest ornamental element to the full field of colored figures in Navajo effects, the sweater seems to have run the gamut of decoration.

Of special interest in the decorative development is the fearlessness with which stripes are now handled. Conscious of the danger of producing undesirable effects, the stripe in the sweater has always been the nightmare of the designer.

Today, however, the stripe has been tamed. Figuratively speaking, designers have taught it to "lie down and roll over," for the simple reason that they have mastered the elements of width and color. Indeed the numerous gorgeous results seem to indicate that they glory in their mastery.

A group of artistic sweaters with colorful stripes seen in one of the fashionable Fifth Avenue shops represented garments of silk, mohair, and silk and mohair mixed. Another shop exhibited the sweater shown here. It is a sport neck slipover of foreign alpaca yarn, Belgian lace stitch, with oriental coloring throughout the body and sleeves.

Senator McCumber, republican of North Dakota, agreed to lay aside temporarily the tariff bill in order that the senate might consider the appropriation measure, which is in its final legislative stage.

NEWS NOES FROM MOVIELAND

Ivor Novello, who is called Britain's handsomest man, and certainly looks here as if he deserved the title, does not confine his efforts to one of the arts only. He is a screen actor, a stage actor and a composer. The well-known war song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," bears Novello's name, and two current London successes were composed by him, "The Golden Moth" and "A to Z."

He has announced his intention of visiting New York as soon as he finishes work on the picture "The Bohemian Girl," in which he is playing opposite Gladys Cooper, the "postcard queen" of the British stage. If he does come to the United States some of the Rodolph Valentino Eugene O'Briens and Joseph Schildkrauts better look to their laurels.

Jack Pickford's Next

When the Pickfords were in New York a few months ago their greatest worry seemed to be in finding a suitable vehicle for Jack Pickford. After selling the motion picture rights of "The Tailor Made Man" to Charlie Ray, there was nothing handy to be used for young Pickford. Mary said she would not have sold Mr. Ray the play if she had not expected "Six Cylinder Love" would be ready for Jack by the time he was ready to work.

Complications and the extraordinary success on the stage of the Truex vehicle made this out of the question, and then the search for a story started in with a vengeance. "Garrison's Finish" was finally settled upon.

LEWIS SAYS NO CHANGE IN STRIKE

Miners President Says New Wage Scale Must Be Fixed By Conference.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Indications were given at the White House today that the government soon would be able to make an announcement in connection with the strike situation and that steps contemplating a move to bring leaders of the miners union and representative operators together for a discussion of wage differences.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The bituminous coal strike situation is unchanged after the conference of President Harding and Secretary of Labor Davis with John L. Lewis, president of U. M. W. of A. There was no indication of what further steps the administration might take to bring about a settlement. Although Mr. Lewis, who came here Sunday, at the request of Secretary Davis, expects to remain another day in Washington, he was said to have no further appointments with officials today.

Announcement that the union had not altered its position that a new wage scale for the bituminous industry must be negotiated by national or semi-national conferences with operators was made by Lewis yesterday.

Politics Warming Up in Pontotoc County as Primary Draws Closer

The political game in Pontotoc county is warming up as the date of the primary draws nearer. Saturday afternoon A. L. Bullock, J. F. McKeel and Rev. M. A. Cassidy addressed voters on the streets of Ada and other speakers appeared at different parts of the county. Other candidates contented themselves with mingling with the individual voters.

Monday evening J. W. Bolen's forces staged a rally at Glenwood park with a crowd variously estimated from 600 to 1,500 and addresses were delivered advocating his election.

At the same time it is said that 15 cars of Ada people went to Steedman to organize a Bullock club.

Among those who went to Steedman from Ada were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Duncan and daughter, Deorothy; Judge and Mrs. J. F. McKeel, Mrs. and Mrs. L. J. Crowder, Mrs. W. H. Fisher and daughter, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Cora McKeel, Mrs. Paul V. Norrell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Couch and niece, Donna Belle Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McMillan, Mrs. Gladys Maddox, J. L. Sanders and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Haynes and son, Floyd, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Deavers, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pitt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Bobbitt, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Couch.

Candidates for state offices are beginning to drop into Ada more frequently and every indication is that the political pot has begun to boil and will continue until the sizzling sun of August 1 has gone down on the scene.

Resurrection of the Dead Near

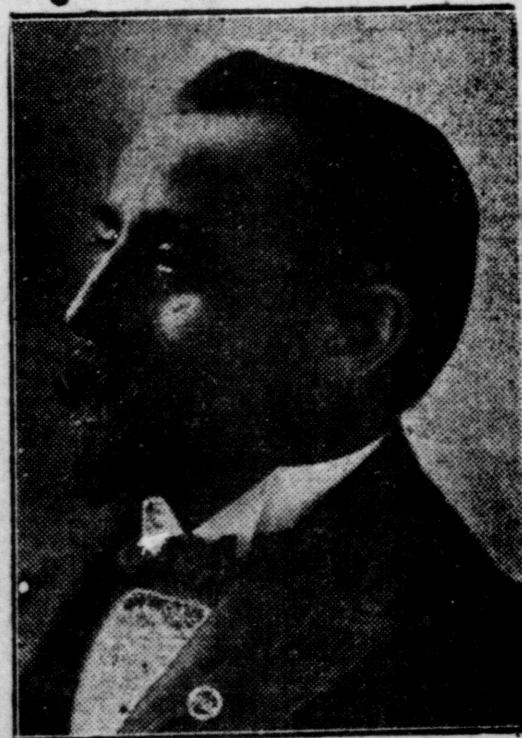

"Millions now living will never die"—Judge Rutherford

"Marvel not: for the hour is coming in the which all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and shall come forth"

For the fulfillment of this prophecy millions have hoped and prayed. Possibly you may have lost a loved one through the terrible events of the past few years, and what would you not give to meet that one again in the flesh, as real and personal as before?

In the Divine program the resurrection of the dead is an event due to begin in your lifetime; not in the mystical, darkened chamber of the spiritist, nor in some ethereal existence in the skies, but on the earth and in the literal sense which only the Scriptures are capable of describing. After being awakened from the sleep of death mankind will be instructed in the laws of Messiah's kingdom and be given an opportunity to live forever on the earth in company with millions now living who will never die.

Perhaps you are skeptical, but you will at least be reasonable enough to hear the cogent proofs in the lecture by G. W. Thorn of New York City, N. Y.

G. W. THORN

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, AT 8:00 P. M. AT THE COURT HOUSE

Judge Rutherford's book, "Can the Living Talk With the Dead?" is a complete expose of the so-called science of spirit communication. It also carefully presents the Bible doctrine of the resurrection, the nature of man, etc. A copy will be mailed to you for 25 cents. Address: MRS. VALLIE PRICE, 320 West 15th Street.

MEXICO CHIEF 94 YEARS OLD TODAY

Gen. Terrazas Gets Flood of Congratulations on Birthday.

(By the Associated Press)
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Chihuahua, Mexico, June 21.—Cards, letters and telegrams from many places in the United States and Mexico were received here today by Gen. Luis Terrazas, tokens of esteem and greetings on this day, his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary.

Congratulations did not come by mail and wire alone, hundreds of persons greeted him face to face today. Many among them were Mexicans who had known the aged general all their lives.

A penniless orphan when ten years old, Gen. Terrazas first learned the value of hard work. Then he became a soldier, an officer in the army, a general, governor of Mexico's largest state, a Mexican patriot and statesman, a multi-millionaire.

He is spending his 94th birthday anniversary in the city of his birth, having been an exile for seven years, but who since has been welcomed back to his native land.

Lives in Old Mansion.
Since 1920 he has been living here in his old palatial mansion. He still daily conducts a little business at least. He still maintains an office, and goes to and from home daily. During the seven years of his exile he lived in El Paso, Tex., and Los Angeles. He was driven out by Villa's army, after the death of one of his sons, who was captured by Villa, and held in prison until he died from exposure. His exile began in 1913, and in 1920, President Obregon welcomed him back to Mexico.

The general's first notable exploit was in 1866 when he led a force of Mexicans against Chihuahua City, which was then held by the French under Maximilian. Although greatly outnumbered Terrazas's men too the city, and turned the tide in the revolution against the French invaders which was under way in Chihuahua by Benito Juarez.

Before this time, however, he had made a success as a soldier, and as chief of police of Chihuahua City. His first business success was managing butcher shops here. After service as police chief, he became mayor, and then was elected governor. For years his candidacy, if such it could be called, was never opposed.

Title Not Disputed.
Section after section of land became his after he and his followers had settled on it undisputed. Many grants were given to him by the government. At times he owned more than half the state of Chihuahua, and on a railroad train a person could travel day and night and never get entirely across his lands. His estate was estimated at various times between 1,000,000 and $70,000,000 acres, but it is a fact that he owned and controlled for years 7,000,000 on which there were thousands of horses, cows and sheep. At that time he was the largest land owner in the world, his friends declared, and his wealth was estimated at $200,000,000.

Villa's men did inestimable damage to the general's estate. Terrazas lost houses, land and thousands of head of stock. His followers were killed, and all he possessed and controlled was thrown into confusion by the Villistas and the bandits which followed Villa from 1910 to 1920.

When he returned in 1920, he found that his estate, long left idle, has been confiscated, or appropriated under the agrarian laws. The expropriation of his estate is still pending, and if the government carries out its decree he will lose practically all he has, except his palatial homestead.

As far as can be learned, Gen. Terrazas is the sole survivor on the battle of Chihuahua City, famous in the annals of Mexican history.

Gen. Terrazas had 12 children and most of them are living. His wife died in Los Angeles in 1919 at the age of 86.

The general declares he will live to be 100. He prays, he said, to outlive his arch enemy, Francisco Villa, so in the next world he can "rebuke him for his sins." Villa is not 50 yet, and is much stronger than Terrazas.

Mrs. T. Wells Tells How Cuticura Healed Blisters On Baby

"When baby was three months old she broke out in little clear blisters. After a while the blisters would break and she would scratch them, causing them to become inflamed and form large, sore eruptions. They were all over her body, even in her hair. Her hair fell out and became dry and lifeless. She could hardly stand her clothing, and we could not pick her up without burning her."

The trouble lasted about five months. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks could see an improvement. I continued using them and she was healed. (Signed) Mrs. Theodore Wells, R. 1, Box 47, De Ridder, La.

"Bought and Paid For" Wins.
William de Mille's splendid Paramount picture production, "Bought and Paid For," a pictization of George Broadhurst's stage success, featuring Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, popular Paramount stars, won its way to popular favor on its presentation at the McSwain theatre yesterday.

The picture is a literal translation of the original stage play, but in screen form it is even more vivid and impressive. It was adapted by Clara Beranger, and every scene shows the artistry of William de Mille the producer, and of the players under his direction. He has brought the play to the screen without losing any of its big moments while at the same time giving them a pictorial value which they lacked on the stage.

Miss Ayres is delightfully cast as Virginia while Jack Holt is, as usual, artistic in his portrayal of the drunken husband, Robert Stafford. Walter Hiers has an excellent com-edy role of which he makes the most. Efficient support was rendered by the supporting players including Leah Wyant, Bernice Frank, Ethel Wales and George Kuwa. Today, last day, showing of this picture.

Vocational Work Pushed.

STILLWATER, Okla. — Three groups of men and women interested in vocational education constitute one of the most active sections of summer students at Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College.

One is a conference of directors of vocational education in various high schools of the state, in which plans are being laid for programs to be carried out next school year. Another is a conference of Smith-Hughes teachers of agriculture.

The third group is composed of students attending the second short course to be offered at A. and M. for cleaners and dyers. Designated by the national association of cleaners and dyers as the national training school for the trade, the course which now is being given has attracted students from five states outside Oklahoma.

PEACE MISSIONS ARE TOO COSTLY

Germany Protests Expense of Conferences Since Versailles Treaty.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Heavy overhead charges incident to the creation under the Versailles Treaty of a number of entente commissions to supervise the execution by Germany of the stipulations of that convention, have been made the subject of bitter protest by the German representatives who attended the Genoa conference. Copies of the statements which were submitted to that conference by the Germans have reached Washington, and it is understood that they also have been furnished to almost every foreign office.

One of the rulings of the reparations commission for instance was that all officials and attaches of the entente commission were to be paid by the German government, not on the basis of the German salary and mark, but on the basis of their home pay in the equivalent in marks. Thus the salary of a French division general, which had been 33,000 francs last year, had to be paid in about two million German marks, while a British general was rated at four millions. The general who acts as president of one of the commissions received 65,550 marks monthly, a colonel 34,500 marks and even a private soldier was paid 9,660 monthly.

Commissions Costly.

The grand total of the salaries of the commissions which Germany has been meeting since the armistice has been sixteen and three-tenths million marks monthly, the statements show. In addition there have been expenses incident to accommodations, etc., amounting to five and a quarter million marks each month.

The membership of the interallied control commissions includes 6 Americans, 230 Belgians, 629 Englishmen, 538 Frenchmen, 139 Italians and 26 Japanese. The proportions are different in the case of the Reparation Commission to which there are attached 14 Americans, 12 Belgians, 15 Englishmen, 63 Frenchmen, 7 Italians and two natives of Madagascar. The expense of this commission was set down in the statements as averaging 32,600,000 marks monthly.

The Reparation Commission was set down as costing the German government 2,500,000 marks monthly. It is not generally known that there are three Americans on the Interallied Coal Commission and four Americans on the Missing Research Commission.

Costs of the maintenance of the troops in occupied German territory paid by Germany aggregate 519 million paper marks monthly, divided between the powers as follows: France 331 millions, Belgium 62 millions, England 73 millions and America 53 millions. For the 26 months up to December, 1920, the aggregate cost was three billions five hundred million marks. The sum of one billion, one hundred million marks of this total is charged to the account of the American troops, one billion, two hundred million to France, one billion even to England, 184 million to Belgium and ten million to Italy. The approximate cost monthly of the American army of occupation was estimated at forty-two millions marks.

THE BAKING POWDER QUESTION SOLVED

Most housewives proclaim that the baking powder question was solved for them the moment they used the first spoonful of Calumet. After that no doubt remained—no hoping—no searching for a perfect leavener—no wondering if bakings would "turn out all right."

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

has solved the question because in all these thirty years it has never failed to produce whole some and appetizing foods at an economical cost. It is as pure and sure as any baking powder ever made.

Calumet is more economical than other brands selling for less because its quality is the highest—no losses from spoiled bakings.

Use Calumet once—that's enough to prove to you that it's "best by test."

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

They Couldn't Know

Back in 1818 the greatest newspaper of the day declared that the world had reached the limit of human expansion. It even went further, saying that there weren't enough supplies in the world to support further growth of population.

The mind of 1818 couldn't conceive of the miracles that human ingenuity would perform during the twentieth century. It couldn't imagine the wonders that would be wrought by new agricultural methods and modern manufacturing genius. It was ignorant of transportation as we know it, or the progressive sales methods of today. It could not see the vital part that would be played by advertising.

Even today there are some who fail to realize what an important factor advertising has become. Advertising is as much a part of today's life as electricity, anti-septic surgery or automobiles. It keeps us up-to-date on the many things we need in order to live profitable, happy and useful lives. It presents for our approval articles of all kinds and for all purposes. The requirements of each member of the family are met by advertised offers of good merchandise of proved value.

The advertisements save time, money and effort for those who read them and follow their guidance. They are practical guarantees of satisfaction.

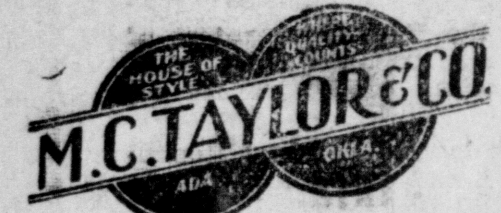

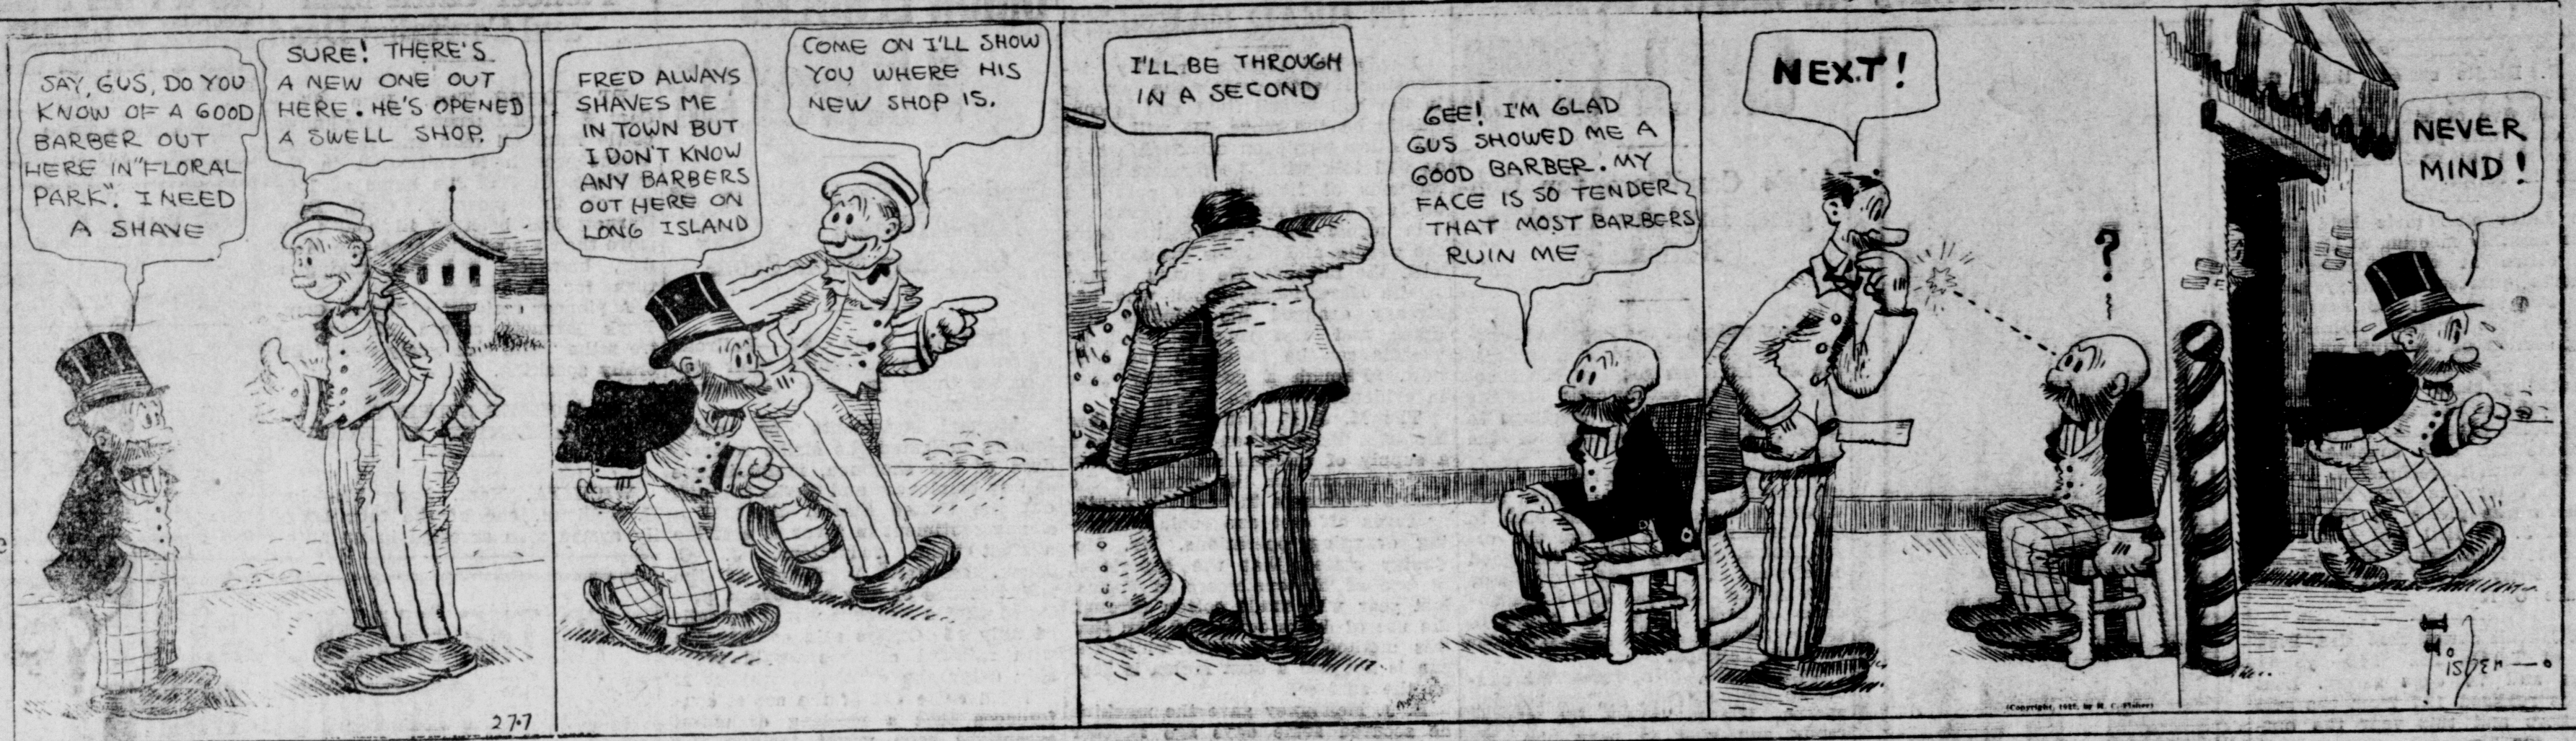

Don't lay aside this paper without reading the advertisements.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Read This Letter from Mrs. W. S. Hughes

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had some internal trouble as ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school once for a week. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I cannot say too much about what your medicine has done for me and for my daughter."—Mrs. Wm. S. Hughes, Greenville, Delaware.

Mother and oftentimes grandmothers have taken and have learned the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So they recommend the medicine to others.

The best test of any medicine is what it has done for others. For nearly fifty years we have published letters from mothers, daughters, and women, young and old, recommending the Vegetable Compound. They know what it did for them and are glad to tell others. In your own neighborhood are women who know of its great value.

Mother—daughters, why not try it?

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Railroad fares and Hotel bills aren't the only things to consider.

By F. LEIPZIGER

Farmers' Column

By Byron Norrell

W. R. Riddle states that the Irish potato crop of Union Valley will total five or six cars. Two or three cars will probably be shipped now and the rest held until the demand is better.

The Latta club girls held their regular monthly meeting at Mrs. Duval's office at the Chamber of Commerce quarters Saturday afternoon. Fourteen out of seventeen members were present. While the sewing section of the club was busy with their assignment of work and the cooking class took a lesson, others made a freezer of ice cream and with the cake some of the girls had made the club concluded the afternoon with refreshments. I happened in after the girls had gone but there was plenty of ice cream left and J. B. Hill and I did our part towards emptying the can. He and I heartily agreed that the Latta girls are O. K.

Mrs. Duval states that Mrs. Dick Myers of Tyrone has 143 young turkeys and 70 eggs setting. Last year she realized 187 from the sale of turkeys and this year the outlook is for several times that amount. She has had fine success with her flock.

Speaking of poultry, Mrs. Duval says that the interest in this line is growing all the time. This year a great deal more attention than usual has been given to poultry raising and her poultry club members are making good records. Pure bred stuff is gaining ground.

Mrs. Duval states that canning operations are now in full swing throughout the county. In every community the ladies are hard at work with produce of garden and orchard and a liberal supply will be in the cellars when winter comes around again.

The Chamber of Commerce did a good day's work when it provided quarters for the county demonstration agents. It makes the work much more convenient for all concerned. Of course both are out in the country most of the week, but on Saturdays all ages are in evidence to see one or the other. The kitchen in the rear makes it possible for Mrs. Duval to give her canning and cooking demonstrations to women and girls who would never otherwise have this advantage, and her office is a rest room that is appreciated by many who are in town. A feature of Mr. Hill's quarters is the exhibit of Pontotoc county products. He also utilizes the balcony for storing seed and materials likely to be needed and it is here that he prepares the fair exhibits. It is becoming common for various organizations to hold their meetings here, thus making this place headquarters for those who are trying to improve their own condition and raise the standard of agriculture in Pontotoc county.

That a concerted effort to combat the ravages of the boll weevil will be made this year is evidenced by the reports from various counties in this part of the state. Among others Durant and Shawnee papers tell of the organization of boll weevil associations in their counties to discuss and devise ways and means of offering a determined resistance to the pest.

The department of agriculture figures that there has been a marked increase this season in the acreage of melons in marketing states. In Colorado the acreage in cantaloupes has jumped from 8,200 to 16,000. Arkansas has fallen off about 2,000 acres, but California and Maryland have gained slightly. The watermelon acreage has increased but slightly. Missouri has the largest acreage, a little more than 10,000, while Oklahoma comes second with 7,310.

C. O. Grimes, a truck farmer living near Muskogee, has an estimated yield of from seven to eight tons per acre of frost-proof cabbage, planted in February, which is selling now at $50 a ton, according to John M. White, farm demonstration agent for this county. Grimes has five acres planted to that crop.

Drying is probably the oldest method of keeping fruit and is still a popular one. However, to put the fruit where the flies can have free access to it while drying does not make it particularly appetizing. To avoid this one should make a frame and cover with screen wire. Several shelves can be put into the cage and the fruit spread over these. I have used one of these and found it just the thing for the purpose.

L. W. W. CONVICTS WILL BE FREED FROM PRISON

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Extension of executive clemency to Vincent St. John, nationally known as a former organizer and secretary-treasurer of the L. W. W. and Clyde Hough of Rockford, Ill., both serving sentences for violation of war time laws was announced today at the department of justice.

Two men have been imprisoned at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and will be released at once under commutation of their sentences. St. John was convicted in the Chicago L. W. W. prosecutions and sentenced to serve 10 years in prison, while Hough was sentenced to serve five years for violation of the selective service act.

Mable Bassett, Democratic candidate for State Commissioner of Charities and Corrections whose home is in Sapulpa, Okla., is expected to arrive here tonight, to take up her campaign work in this city.

SELF DEFENSE PLEA OF GORDON

State Rests in Murder Trial of A. & M. Student at Stillwater.

(By the Associated Press)

STILLWATER, June 27.—Witnesses in the trial of Earl Gordon for the murder of Beckham Cobb, a federal student in the Oklahoma A. & M. college will testify that Cobb met his death at Gordon's hand in a street bordering the college campus only after he had attempted to shoot the latter, according to the opening statement of Fred Nesbitt, chief counsel for the defense here today.

Nesbitt said the plea of self defense would be supported by college students who were friends to the two men.

Cobb told Gordon that he intended to compel him to leave town, Nesbitt declared, whereupon an argument arose and Cobb drew his gun, pointing it at Gordon and dropping down the hammer. The gun misfired, according to the outline of the defense testimony. The attorney said Gordon then walked away and Cobb followed. Words again were passed and Cobb reached for his pistol, whereupon Gordon drew his weapon and fired.

Nesbitt said the defense would attempt to show that Cobb had accosted Gordon in the college library the day before the shooting, introduced himself and informed Gordon that reports were current about the college "that you have been going with my wife."

"I don't know you and I don't think I know your wife," Gordon replied, according to Nesbitt's statement.

That afternoon Gordon borrowed a gun from a student friend after Cobb had walked to the business district of the city with him and engaged in an argument of his alleged friendship with Mrs. Cobb, Nesbitt declared.

The day of the shooting Cobb went to Gordon's room but was unable to find him, the statement continued. Later Cobb found him and compelled him to go to the Cobb home, where he brought Gordon and Mrs. Cobb face to face, according to Nesbitt.

"Now I have you together, you'll tell the truth," Cobb was represented as saying, emphasizing his statement with a drawn revolver.

"I have had nothing to do with him," Mrs. Cobb declared, and attempted to wrest the gun from his grasp, Gordon leaving the room by the scuffle, according to Nesbitt's testimony.

Nesbitt said he would offer testimony to show that Cobb had threatened to shoot four other men for alleged relations with his wife.

The state rested shortly before the noon recess after six witnesses, three of whom testified to have witnessed the shooting, had been on the stand.

M'KEOWN STIRS SAPULPA CROWD

Ada's Candidate for Congress Explains Troubles Nationally

The meeting of the Sapulpa Democratic club held Monday evening in the district court room at the court house was an enthusiastic meeting an introduction of the meetings to follow. The next meeting of the club will be July 26.

Chairman J. H. McCauley called the meeting to order and stated that it was the purpose of the club to get acquainted and perfect the organization, getting ready for good hard work after the primary. Cards were passed, and the name and address of each person was obtained, the beginning of a list of every democrat in Sapulpa.

Tom D. McKeown, democratic candidate for congress, gave a rousing speech. His audiences are always ready and glad to hear him. He speaks true democracy.

The speaker told of the good democracy had done for this country, that the democratic party was the oldest party, and that the party had survived because the principles are broad and affect the country most beneficially.

The present conditions were explained because instead of there now being true statesmanship there was selfish politics, and the country is suffering from the blunders of politicians; that there were all kinds of promises made in 1920, that the promises were so great and plentiful those making the promises cannot remember them.

Congressman McKeown said placarding prosperity would not bring prosperity, that Harding is using the placarding system to bring prosperity instead of getting down to the present needs—the economic conditions of this country; the increase of the population of the country to the city; agricultural prices; high railroad rates.

The speaker said there should be no politics in the soldier bonus, that there were no politics in the war, and there should be none in the bonus, but that politics had been injected into the bonus bill, and that in congress now it is only trouble—bonus and tariff, tariff and bonus, ad infinitum. The speaker favored the bonus, saying that every soldier should have a home, although some of the soldiers themselves did not ask for the bonus, but he thought it right and that a home should be provided, and in case the soldier was married his widow could receive the home. The solution for the bonus was for the country to use certain interest money loaned by the government.

In closing, the speaker said it was the duty of every man to vote for the best interests of his country, and that democracy offered the greater reasons why the voter should vote for the party; the democratic party stands for the individual interest rather than for class administration; the years the democratic party had control were the most prosperous years for the country, and that the country needed to get back to statesmanship instead of plain politics.—County Democrat. BOLL WEEVIL FIGHT NOW ON IN DEAD EARNEST

Hardy Dial reports rapidly increasing interest among the farmers in the boll weevil fight and is constantly on the move. He will be at the Allen picnic on the 29th where he will talk with the farmers about methods of fighting the pest and on July 4 will spend the day at the Ada picnic where he will address the people and discuss his methods with the farmers. He found a man in the Hart neighborhood who has already dragged his middles five times and who reported that no weevils can be found in the field now, although a good many were in evidence when he began.

The M. & P. National bank has bought a dozen poison spreaders and a supply of calcium arsenate which will be used on the crops of the bank's customers in case the weather turns off wet and cool, hampering dragging operations. Mr. McCauley stated that the experience of two of his customers at Vanoss last year who made cotton through the use of drags convinced him that this method is all right while the sun is hot and a dust mulch is kept on the surface.

E. J. McKinney gave the machine he secured some days ago another trial and said it picked up a number of weevils. This machine is being used extensively around Durant, according to the Durant papers.

Gresham & Brown of Frisco have a machine of their own invention on exhibit. It consists of a zinc holder on runners surrounded by a covering of canvass and fitted with fingers to comb the cotton as the plants pass through between the two zinc holders. Oil is placed in the holders or troughs to kill the insects as they are knocked from the cotton stalks.

PAY DAY SOON FOR FANS AT AMERICAN THEATRE

"Pay Day" will come. It's due next Thursday at the American theater for thousands of motion picture followers who have been waiting for a good laugh.

"Pay Day" is a First National attraction, being the title of the latest Charles Chaplin comedy and the first one that the superlative star of fun has given the screen in many months. It will be pay day for the fans who have been waiting to cash in on a good laugh, for advance reports have it that the picture is one of the biggest humorosities that have ever come from the Chaplin studios.

UNION LEADERS IN CONFERENCE

Predicted That Strike of Men Affected by Wage Cuts May Come Soon.

CHICAGO, June 27.—Railroad union officials continued their conferences today on the threatened railroad strike.

Informal statements by union leaders indicated the strike referendum of the shopmen, maintenance of way employees and clerks through out the United States, disclosed a strong sentiment in favor of a strike against wage reductions. J. C. Mook, assistant president of the maintenance of way employees, predicted that a walkout would be called July 15. Others said conferences with railroad officials would probably delay the call until August 1.

Word came out of the secret conferences that a meeting of union executives soon might include the "big four" brotherhoods of the trainmen who are unaffected by the wage cut.

"The strike is sure to be called July 15," said Mr. Mook. "We are prepared for concerted action against the railroads and with that end in view have called for a meeting here within the next few days of executives of the 16 standard railroad unions."

B. M. Jewell, head of the railroad employees department of the American Federation of Labor, said an "important announcement" would be made Thursday.

Capt. Burk Burnett Pioneer Cattle Man and Capitalist Dead

(By the Associated Press)

FT. WORTH, Tex., June 27.—Capt. S. Burk Burnett, widely known cattle man, oil man and ranchman, whose wealth is estimated in the millions, died at his home at 1:50 o'clock this morning. Capt. Burk Burnett had been in ill health for more than a year, his condition Monday, however, suddenly taking a turn for the worse.

A pioneer resident of Texas, Capt. Burk Burnett carved his fortune from the "wild and woolly west," literally speaking.

Tomorrow: POLA NEGRI in "THE DEVIL'S PAWN"

324—As cool as the early morning and so easy to make in crisp gingham or quaint print, an irresistible little utility dress.

325—Delightfully effective in two colors or plaid and figured silks. Long panels of contrasting material give the uneven line and the lowered hem.

326—With the swing of youth in every line and so easy to copy. Belted, this frock has a naive charm.

325—Another version of the slip-over dress which has found such instant favor.

324—A captivating costume for the Summer port. The graceful loose panels are universally becoming.
